PART E

TERMS OF REFERENCE & PROJECT BRIEF

1. INTRODUCTION

The DBSA is one of Africa's leading Development Financial institutions (DFI), that is wholly owned by the South African government. It is mandated to promote inclusive economic growth and regional integration by mobilizing financial and other resources for sustainable development projects and programmes in South Africa, Southern African Development Community (SADC) and wider African continent. It fosters infrastructure-led economic growth which responds to the socio-economic needs of our people as well as addresses the threats of climate change leading to an improvement in the lives of the African population.¹ Accordingly, the DBSA's mission is to advance development impact in the region by expanding access to development finance, and effectively integrate and implement sustainable development solutions to:

- Improve the quality of life through the development of social infrastructure
- Support economic growth through investment in economic infrastructure
- Support regional integration
- Promote sustainable use of scarce resources²

The overarching ambition of the DBSA is to promote "...development that improves the quality of people's lives" through the financing of a multitude of infrastructure projects. It finances infrastructure projects in energy, transport, water and sanitation and information and communication technology [ICT]) and is supporting social sectors such as education, health and housing to realise its development objectives.

The DBSA encapsulates a developmental mandate espoused by international development initiatives such as the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); and national developmental aspirations as articulated in the National Development Plan (NDP). For instance, SDG 11 pertaining to 'making cities and human settlements that are inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable' is associated with NDP Outcome 8 which relates to 'sustainable human settlements and improved quality of life'.³

Notwithstanding the financial success of projects financed by the Bank, the DBSA conducts evaluations to ascertain the impact projects had on beneficiaries. The evaluations aid the Bank to improve its programmes by increasing knowledge of what works and what does not. Consequently, the lessons garnered can inform future projects funded by the DBSA.

² DBSA, 2023b. Annual Report - 2022

³ DBSA, 2023a. Sustainability Review - 2022

2. BACKGROUND

The Operations Evaluation Unit (OEU) within DBSA was specifically established to conduct and manage evaluations to determine the developmental outputs, outcomes, and impacts of funded projects. Accordingly, the OEU needs expert evaluators to help in increasing the number of independent evaluations it conducts. Hence, the DBSA is seeking to establish a panel of suitably qualified, reputable, and experienced evaluators to undertake evaluations when the need arises for the Bank.

The DBSA seeks to appoint a panel of service providers for a period of three years from 2024/25 until 2026/27 to conduct evaluations when the need arises, to determine the developmental results of selected projects. The evaluations will be conducted for completed and implemented projects/programmes to enable the successful measurement of results over the long term. The main objectives of the evaluations are to:

- Validate project outputs and outcomes
 - Implementation obstacles (catalysts) that hindered (promoted) output or outcomes
 - Issues relating to intended and unintended outcomes
- Assess the socio-economic, environmental, technical and financial elements of the project
 - Obstacles and catalysts encountered in realizing these components of the project
- Examine the project against the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)/Development Assistance Committee (DAC) criteria
 - Relevance, efficiency, effectiveness, impact, sustainability and coherence
- Lessons learnt
 - Project management, monitoring and implementation of future projects
 - Identification of sector specific issues to inform future DBSA funded projects
- Value added to DBSA
 - Enhance the profile of the DBSA
 - Potential increase in lending in the relevant sector

It is anticipated that the evaluations will assist the DBSA in future investments in respective sectors, enhance resource allocation and improve the decision making within the Bank.

4. ACCURACY OF RFP

Whilst all due care has been taken regarding the preparation of this RFP, the DBSA and its officers, employees and advisors will not be liable with respect to any information communicated which is not accurate, current or complete.

Any actual discrepancy, ambiguity, error or inconsistency in this RFP or any other information provided by the DBSA will, if possible, be corrected and provided to all bidders without attribution to the bidder who provided the written notice.

5. ADDITIONS AND AMENDMENTS TO THE RFP

The DBSA reserves the right to change any information in, or to issue any addendum to this RFP before the closing time. The DBSA and its officers, employees and advisors will not be liable in connection with either the exercise of, or failure to exercise this right.
