

This aerial view shows the Overton Hospital and its surrounding area in Durban, South Africa. The hospital building is a large, multi-story structure with a central courtyard. To the left of the hospital is a large green field, likely a sports field. The area is bounded by several streets, including Sparks Rd, South Rd, and the M40 highway. Various landmarks and businesses are visible, such as the Durban City Conference & Exhibition Centre, KFC Overton, and the Durban City Council. The image is a Google Map, as indicated by the 'Google' logo at the bottom.
